APPEARANCE SUMMARY

Hesperia Chamber of Commerce

San Bernardino County ATC Ensen Mason was the keynote speaker at the March meeting of the Hesperia Chamber of Commerce on March 18, 2019. Mason provided the audience of over 60 members and guests with a comprehensive overview of his large and complex office, including nine divisions and 336 employees who serve as the ongoing financial foundation of County government. He emphasized the temporary opening of an ATC office in the High Desert Government Center the first ten days of April to accept property tax payments by card or check. This program is to serve the growing population of the high desert by not requiring them to drive down the hill to make their property tax payment.

Mason is a former 20 year resident of the high desert, and served as an elected Member of the Victor Valley Union High School District. While a resident of the area, he owned a small business and was a long-time Hesperia Chamber of Commerce member. He was elected ATC in 2018 as a Taxpayer Advocate/CPA, and focuses on exposing government fraud, waste and abuse while providing superior customer service and maximizing use of technology to expand department services without increasing spending.
