Property Tax Deadline Approaching – Property Owners Reminded To Pay

San Bernardino, CA — San Bernardino County Tax Collector Ensen Mason is encouraging property owners to pay the first installment of their property taxes by Tuesday, December 10, to avoid a 10% penalty. The Tax Collector's Office offers many convenient ways to pay, including online, by phone, by mail, and in person.

"Property taxes fund key public services that enhance the quality of life for County residents," said Mason. "I want to encourage property owners to do what they can to pay their property taxes by the December 10 deadline to avoid costly penalties as a result of late payments." Taxpayers can take advantage of ATC's online payment option at www.MyTaxCollector.com, making it easy, secure, and Simply A Better Way To Do Business®.

Electronic payments are accepted online at www.MyTaxCollector.com, and by phone at (909) 387-8308, or (760) 241-8829, and can be made using a checking or savings account free of charge. Credit card payments are also accepted; however, they include a convenience fee charged by a third-party processing vendor. Property owners interested in electronic tax bill delivery can enroll online to receive property tax bills directly to their email.

In accordance with Revenue and Taxation Code §2503.2(b), the San Bernardino County Tax Collector currently requires taxpayers who make an aggregate payment of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more per year to submit their payment by ACH credit or wire transfer. For the County's bank account information, please contact us at (909) 387-8308 or email us at TCAccounting@atc.sbcounty.gov.
